About

Stefan Dörig is Head of Regulatory and Public Affairs at tiko Energy Solutions AG.

He studied history, economics and Russian literature at the University of Zurich and launched his professional career 2007 at the Swiss Federal Office of Energy.

Later, Stefan held a position as an energy economist in BKW, one of Switzerland's major energy companies, and 2013-2017 he worked at the Mission of Switzerland to the European Union in Brussels, where he was in charge of the energy dossier.

After his return to Switzerland, Stefan joined software-startup enersis, before entering tiko in spring 2020.

At tiko, we believe that the energy revolution comes from the people, for the people, and that a better earth with only be possible if we collectively change the way we consume energy.

Our flexible and modular technology enables innovative solutions for prosumers to maximize their self-consumption, and thus their return on investment. Consumers gain insight and control over their energy consumption and increase their comfort. We put this unique knowledge at the disposal of our partners, making them leaders of the energy revolution, and helping them to gain an innovative image among their customers. tiko is a company from the ENGIE Group.
